

Lord some are against me and understand me not, for I do good to those who do me wrong. I believe in wholeness, a giving nature, and the love within all of us. Help me to forgive those that are against me, let me see the good in all people. Help me to not judge those that I find ill willed and unlawful. Thou art the ultimate source of fulfillment, fill me and those who art against me. Amen

