

Oh Lord is it possible to be blind while I still see.
My eyes don't see the beauty that is around me.
Others say look how beautiful it is, and I see it not. God let me see with your eyes, God let me hear with your ears, God let me feel with your soul, God grant me what I need this day in order to be in right with the energy that can fill me up. Make this day as beautiful as the love you have for me. Amen
