

Oh Lord help our planet's inhabitants realize how lucky they are for what is provided for them. Help us to take care of our planet and to not pollute or destroy it. Help us to help ourselves' help each other in any way we can. Oh Lord we have such positive things to say yet we speak only of the troubles that surround us. Let this be a day for pronouncing our joy that lies within us. Amen

