

I can walk, I can talk, I can hear, I can see, I can read! Not everyone can say the above words. Please pray today for those who are not fortunate enough to have perfect use of all the above functions. We should and must share, love and help those that need us. Please oh Lord let me realize how lucky I am, let me give my time and contribution to those that need me. Let me express my gratitude today and every day. Amen
