

Lord let those in power see the potential of their power. Many that have say over many do not see the consequence of their power. Let them fuel the world of tomorrow, help them see past their office and onwards to global peace and unity. Help them invest in our environment and less on industry. Illuminate the soul of the one who has not the light needed to oversee great things. Amen

